Club Participation Toolkit

A SOROPTIMIST RESOURCE FOR CLUBS & MEMBERS

Welcome to the Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards!

I was able to recognize my own hard work and to recognize the goals again by writing what I actually have achieved in my essay. In addition, I was able to feel the joy and pride of being recognized for receiving the award. The fact that I work hard and am fulfilling my dreams with my goals is a good influence for my children.—Japanese Award Recipient

Knowing that this group of ladies had chosen me and believed that I could succeed was the extra boost that I needed at times. Choosing to squeeze classes into my already busy schedule was a challenge. Soroptimist had invested in me; I was not going to fail them...or myself! I have always believed in myself, however, one can never underestimate the empowerment that comes from someone else believing in you too!—US Award Recipient

The Live Your Dream Award helped me be a role model to my kids showing them that you can change your path at any age if you set your mind to it. My oldest daughter is going off to college this fall. I hope to help her get on her feet and become an independent young woman herself. For the last few years I finally feel at peace with where I am in life.—Canadian Award Recipient

These three women were given a boost on their path to live their dreams with the Soroptimist Live Your Dream Award. After economic and other barriers to their success, they moved confidently in the direction of their dreams with the support of their local Soroptimist club. Your club's participation in the Live Your Dream Awards is a terrific way to make a BIG difference in the lives of women—and their families. Although the awards address economic need and make a difference in a practical way, we know that they also affect women in a personal way. Women who have received the award report an increase in self-esteem and pride at being recognized for having the courage to change their lives. This program is the cornerstone of our efforts to increase public awareness and international name recognition for Soroptimist. Increasing name recognition of Soroptimist by linking it to a program as meaningful and valuable as the Live Your Dream Awards will help us achieve our mission, recruit and retain members, raise our public profile and attract additional financial support. This is critical for our organization's growth and development. The Live Your Dream Awards are also a key part of our strategy to achieve our 2021-2031 Big Goal: to invest in the dreams of half a million women and girls through access to education, leading to economic empowerment. And your club is a crucial part of achieving that Big Goal!

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How can my club get applications?

The Live Your Dream Awards application (including reference form) is available online as an easy-to-use writeable PDF form in all federation languages. In the US and Canada, clubs can share the link to the online application portal for women to connect to your club and create an application.

How can new clubs get started?

Clubs new to the awards program should read this toolkit thoroughly and ask their region chair any questions. All newly chartered clubs in the federation will receive an email from SIA with information about new club funding, through which they can receive $1,000 to fund their first Live Your Dream Award. Email LYDAwards@soroptimist.org for more information.

What should we do if we do not receive any qualified applications?

If this happens, contact your region chair as well as SIA Headquarters at lydwards@soroptimist.org, as there are several applications submitted to SIA Headquarters that are available to share with your club. A second option is to contact other clubs in your area to see if they have applications they can share.

When and where do we submit our recipient for the next level of judging?

For clubs with district judging, the deadline for submission to the district is February 1. For those clubs in regions without districts, the deadline is February 15. For information about where to send your applications, please check the region chair directory.

What are the eligibility requirements for the Live Your Dream Awards?

For a full list of the Live Your Dream Awards eligibility requirements please refer to the Eligibility Checklist.

What kinds of educational programs are eligible for the Live Your Dream Awards?

Any type of education or training that will help a woman improve her standard of living are eligible including:

- High school equivalency
- Undergraduate degree (including a second bachelor's degree, or online programs)
- Certificates/coursework for career advancement
- Vocational/technical training programs

Graduate degrees (Master's, JD, MD, or PhD) programs are NOT eligible for the Live Your Dream Awards.

Is a woman still eligible to receive an award if she receives financial assistance or lives in someone else's home?

The Live Your Dream Awards provide resources so women with dependents can increase their standard of living and achieve economic empowerment. While working towards their goals, women may receive government support, child support, or live in subsidized housing/in someone else's home. These things do not negate a woman's primary financial responsibility for her dependents or disqualify a woman from being eligible for the program.

What constitutes club participation in the Live Your Dream Awards program?

For a club to be counted as participating in the Live Your Dream Awards program, the club must give a cash award to a minimum of one eligible woman and then forward her application for district or region-level judging.

Why do we need our Live Your Dream Awards recipient to sign a media consent form?

Many clubs and regions create a news release to further honor their recipient, or use their recipient's story on their website or social media to advertise the award to future potential applicants. In order to use your recipient's name and story, you will need her to sign a media consent form first. Some recipients may not be comfortable with having their personal story shared and will choose to not sign the form. In these cases, clubs must honor the recipient's confidentiality.

Can we give the funding directly to the recipient's school on her behalf?

The Live Your Dream Awards is a unique program because we trust women to use the award in the way that is best for them, whether that's paying for tuition, books, transportation, childcare, or another expense. Clubs should only send funding to the school upon the request of the recipient and should keep documentation of this request.

HOW TO: RECRUIT APPLICANTS

Raise awareness of the award and recruit applicants!

The key to successful recruitment is to identify eligible women and make your community aware of the Live Your Dream Awards.

Determine an Award Amount

Clubs should determine how much to give their Live Your Dream Award recipient(s) according to their fundraising efforts, the number of awards they are giving, as well as the costs of education and living in their particular community. Participating clubs give an average of US $1,000 per recipient. A large cash award may make it easier to attract applicants.

Remember the Eligibility Requirements

Use the requirements to help identify where to find eligible women in your community.

Eligible women:

- Provide the primary financial support* for themselves and their dependents. Dependents can include children, spouse, partner, siblings, and/or parents.
- Have financial need.
- Are enrolled in or have been accepted to a high school equivalency, vocational, technical, or undergraduate degree program.
- Are motivated to achieve their education and career goals.
- Reside in one of Soroptimist International of the Americas' member countries/territories (Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Canada, Colombia, Ecuador, Guam, Japan, Korea, Mexico, Northern Mariana Islands, Palau, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Philippines, Taiwan, United States of America, Venezuela)
- Have not previously been the recipient of a Soroptimist Women's Opportunity Award or Live Your Dream Award
- Do not have a graduate degree.
- Are not a Soroptimist member, an employee of Soroptimist International of the Americas, or immediate family of either. Immediate family is defined to include spouse/partner, parents, siblings, children, or grandchildren by adoption, blood or marriage.

*Note: Receiving government support, child support, living in subsidized housing or in someone else's home do not negate a woman's primary financial responsibility for her dependents or disqualify a woman from being eligible for the program.

Make Use of the Writeable/Emailable Application

Using the writeable/emailable application form and references will greatly facilitate this process as clubs can email applications to partner organizations or directly to individual applicants. Please note: applicants are now required to only have one reference (they can still submit two, but the second one is optional!).

Publicize the Award

Have applications and information available during club projects where appropriate, such as health screenings, computer centers, or during mentoring activities.

Contact the following organizations about distributing applications, hanging posters, and assisting your club in reaching women who need assistance.

- vocational or training schools
- community colleges or universities
- places of worship
- community/recreation centers
- charitable organizations, especially those working with women and low-income persons
- homeless shelters and transitional housing programs
- domestic violence shelters
- food banks
- government public assistance offices
- women's health centers
- childcare or daycare facilities
- welfare-to-work programs
- clinics that provide free medical services to low-income persons
- employment agencies
- local job/career fairs
- addiction recovery and rehab centers

RECRUITING TIPS

Work with Local Schools

Many community colleges, universities, and vocational/trade schools offer financial aid workshops that include information about local scholarships and awards. Contact the financial aid offices of nearby institutions to ask if the Live Your Dream Awards can be included. Also, many colleges and universities have women's centers to assist women throughout their education. Contact these centers for assistance in finding eligible women. Offer to email the application or online application portal link (US and Canada) and ask that they forward it to eligible women.

Make a Personal Contact

Clubs have reported they have the most success receiving completed applications when they have a personal contact at the organizations where they are recruiting. Do not just email, mail, or drop off applications and expect to receive a response. Talk to someone within the organizations and explain the benefits of the program. To assist with these efforts, please refer to the sample recruiting letter of introduction to a local community organization.

Assist Women with Their Applications

The women targeted by this award are usually going to school, raising children, and working. They may be very busy and may need reminders about deadlines. Furthermore, they may find the application intimidating. This could be the first time they are applying for an award. We also hear that women do not feel they are worthy of the award. Helping applicants understand the award process can dispel this thinking.

Consider holding a workshop to discuss the application process and have club members available to offer one-on-one assistance. Conducting a Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards application workshop is an excellent way for your club to identify eligible women in your community and provide them with the support they need to complete the application process. To assist clubs in conducting an application workshop, check out Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards: Achieving Success Through Application Workshops.

Expand the Search to Surrounding Areas

If you live in a particularly small area and are having difficulty finding applicants, expand your search to surrounding communities that do not have Soroptimist clubs. Contacting organizations, distributing applications, and receiving completed applications can all be handled by email, mail, or telephone.

Applications from SIA Headquarters

If your club has not received any eligible applications, contact SIA Headquarters to ask for complete and eligible applications that can be forwarded to your club.

Working with Other Local Soroptimist Clubs

Some Soroptimist clubs share their completed applications as a way to honor as many eligible women as possible. Each club gives an award to a different woman. Your region chair can help facilitate this.

Work with Previous Award Recipients

Previous Live Your Dream Award recipients have expressed a desire to promote the award by speaking to other local organizations, at schools, community centers, and health centers. Additionally, they were interested in connecting with the media about their experience and holding workshops for applicants. Utilizing enthusiastic women who have received the award to promote the Live Your Dream Awards can bolster recruitment.

SAMPLE RECRUITING LETTER

Clubs may use the sample recruiting letter when emailing applications and reference forms to partner organizations.

NOTE: before emailing these materials, type your club's contact information into the writeable application form so that applicants will be able to complete the application online and email the completed forms directly to your club.

Anna Smith, Executive Director
Women's Alternative Center
55 Main Street
Anytown, Anystate 10555

Dear Ms. Smith,

Michelle, 32, is a single mother of two children. Michelle got pregnant during her senior year of high school and never fulfilled her plans to attend college. Two years ago, she lost her job at a local bank when the branch was forced to close. Because she had no formal training, certifications, or degrees, getting a new job wasn't easy. Michelle had to work two low-paying jobs just to have enough money for the essentials. She knew that there was only one thing she could do to change her life—go to college.

Luckily, Michelle was one of nearly 1,800 women who received a Soroptimist Live Your Dream Award last year. The Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards are cash awards given to motivated women who are the primary financial supporters of their families. The recipients of the awards seek to improve their lives by gaining additional skills, training, or education, but do not have the resources to do so. These cash awards are meant to offset any costs associated with the recipient's efforts to attain higher education, including tuition, books, supplies, childcare, or transportation costs.

The Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards is the signature project of Soroptimist International of the Americas. Soroptimist International of Anytown is one of nearly 1,300 clubs that make up Soroptimist International of the Americas, a global volunteer organization that provides women and girls with access to the education and training they need to achieve economic empowerment.

The most challenging aspect of this program is getting applications into the hands of eligible women. Please find attached an emailable Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards application and two emailable reference forms. Please forward these materials to any women you know who strive to attain higher education in the hopes of better supporting themselves and their families. We have included our club's contact information in the materials so that applicants may submit the applications directly to us. We hope that you can take a moment out of your busy day to help a deserving woman in your community by forwarding her this information.

Thank you for your time and support. I will call you next week to discuss the program and how we can work together to find potential applicants.

Sincerely,

Joan Alvarez
Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards Chair
Soroptimist International of Anytown

APPLICATION WORKSHOPS

Introduction

Each year, the Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards helps over 1,800 women live their dreams of a better life for themselves and their families. However, there are countless more women who miss the opportunity to receive an award because they feel intimidated or overwhelmed by the application process. They don't believe they are capable of completing the application, let alone receiving an award.

Conducting a Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards application workshop is an excellent way for your club to identify eligible women in your community and provide them with the support they need to complete the application. As a result, not only will your club help increase the confidence and self-esteem of the women applying, you will end up with more award applications from eligible applicants. Conducting an award application workshop will serve as an especially helpful tool for clubs struggling to find eligible women to apply for the award.

If your club is in the vicinity of other Soroptimist clubs, consider creating a multi-club collective to co-host a workshop. This provides more members to help plan and implement the workshop and allows for pooling and sharing of applications to ensure that all clubs in your area receive eligible applications. If you co-host a workshop, divide the applications among all clubs so that each club has different applications to judge.

Also, when distributing applications to women who will not be attending the workshop, make sure to let them know you are available to assist with the application process should they have any questions. This will help ensure that all applicants have equal access to assistance.

Guidelines for Conducting an Application Workshop

Identify and Meet with Partner Organization(s)

The first step in conducting an application workshop is to identify your partner organization(s). Partnering with a local college, university, vocational/skills training program and/or women's organization—such as a domestic violence shelter or women's homeless shelter—is a great way to identify eligible women and potential applicants.

Once you have identified your partner organization(s), set up an informational meeting with the point person for the organization. Use the meeting to introduce Soroptimist and the Live Your Dream Awards program. The goal of the meeting is to secure an agreement between your club and the partner organization(s) to conduct a Live Your Dream Awards application workshop on-site—either on the campus of your partner school or at the site of a partner organization—and to enlist your point person(s) in helping you to advertise the workshop and identify eligible applicants.

Try to secure a room with computers. This will allow participants to use the writeable/emailable application form. If this is not possible, conduct the workshop using paper applications. Also, try to include space for childcare. For some women, this will be necessary in order for them to attend the workshop.

Advertise the Workshop

When advertising the workshop, it is important to consider an ideal number of participants. You don't want to advertise it so widely that you get more applicants than you can assist. Likewise, it is important to state the award eligibility requirements clearly. Be strategic and work with your partner organization to advertise to and recruit only women known to be eligible for the award.

To help advertise the award, distribute the Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards Poster at strategic places at your partner organization(s) and/or email it directly to potential workshop participants. When women contact the club for more information, you can pre-screen for eligibility.

Recruit Workshop Volunteers

Once you have an idea of how many women will attend the workshop, begin recruiting club members to serve as workshop volunteers. Ideally, there should be no more than three applicants per Soroptimist volunteer – the more one-on-one and personalized attention that can be given to workshop participants the more successful and rewarding the workshop will be. Also recruit members who are interested in providing child-care services during the workshop.

To ensure workshop volunteers are sufficiently knowledgeable, consider holding a training session to walk club members through the application process – explaining each section of the application and providing sufficient time for questions. Give volunteers a heads-up that when applicants work on their personal essay some women may become emotional and/or tearful.

Conduct the Workshop

Allow two hours for the workshop. This will give participants plenty of time to receive one-on-one attention and to complete their portion of the application. Make sure to bring extra applications in case a participant needs to start over. To keep energy levels up, schedule in a short break if needed. Also, provide a sign-in sheet for participants for post-workshop follow-up.

Introductions and Ice Breaker

Begin the workshop with a brief introduction to Soroptimist. The Who We Are page of the SIA website provides a concise summary of Soroptimist including the mission, vision, and core values of the organization. Then allow time for both workshop volunteers and participants to introduce themselves. Use an ice breaker to help participants relax, such as asking everyone to share what they are studying and why. Next, provide a summary of the program, including a brief explanation of the various award levels. Disclose how many club awards will be given, the cash amount, and when award recipients should expect to be notified.

Overview of Application

After the introductions, provide an overview of the application section-by-section and line-by-line— allowing participants to ask questions during each section. Let participants know there will be time to work on the application following the overview. Some things to note in each section:

Part I: Personal Data

- Confirm all workshop participants have dependents that rely on their financial support.

Part II: Career Goals

- Instruct applicants to clearly describe the connections between their educational pursuits and their career goals.

Part III: Personal Statement

- Encourage applicants to be as honest as possible and provide as much detail as they are comfortable sharing.
- Assure applicants that their personal statement will remain confidential—only local Soroptimist club members and award judges will have access to their application. Should they receive an award, their information will be shared only if consent is granted.

Part IV: Financial Need

- Emphasize the need to be as accurate as possible—eligible applicants must demonstrate financial need.
- Note that the figures need to reflect annual income and expenses—not monthly.
- Provide calculators for participants to use.

Part V: References

- Be prepared to help applicants brainstorm potential references.
- Role-play a scenario of an applicant asking someone to provide a reference.
- Provide a sample email for applicants to send to their references.

Fill Out and Collect Applications

Following the application overview, allow ample time for participants to fill out an application. The majority of the workshop should be allocated for actually working on the application. Make sure each participant receives one-on-one attention and instruction. This is arguably the most important part of the workshop and key to assuring your club receives completed applications.

At the end of the workshop, collect the completed applications. Make sure to give participants the application deadline and club contact information so they know where to submit their references or application if they were unable to complete it during the workshop. Also, be sure to let them know when the award judging will take place and when they should expect to be notified. If participants used computers to fill out the writeable form but did not finish, make sure to help them save the document so that they may work on it later.

Remember to thank participants for their attendance. As a symbol of support, consider ordering Soroptimist merchandise from the Soroptimist Store such as a LYD.org notebook for distribution to workshop participants. Make sure participants understand that attending the workshop does not ensure they will become award recipients: not all workshop participants will become award recipients. However, you can encourage participants to reapply the following year if they are not selected.

Post-Workshop Follow-Up

Check-in with participants as the application deadline approaches to remind them to submit their application and/or references. Once your club has selected the club-level award recipient(s), send a letter to all participants who were not selected (see these sample letter templates). Thank them again for their participation in the workshop and encourage them to reapply next year.

Conclusion

Conducting an application workshop is a proven way to identify eligible applicants and provide them with the support and encouragement they need to apply. As a result, not only will this increase the number of applications your club receives, but you will have helped to increase the self-confidence and self-esteem of workshop participants. Participants will leave the workshop having made new friends and will know that they are not alone. They will leave knowing that Soroptimists believe in them—and that, regardless of whether they receive an award, they are capable of achieving their dreams of a better life for themselves and their family.

BUDGET TIPS WORKSHEET

Overall Tips & Instructions

We know that completing a budget of your income and expenses for a year may be a new or unusual task. But it helps to give a holistic picture of your unique financial situation as an applicant!

Some general tips to keep in mind as you complete the budget section of your application:

- Do your best to be accurate, but it is okay to put in your best estimate for an income or an expense.
- Your expenses may be higher than your income, or not. Everyone's financial situation is different!
- If you are confused after reading this tip sheet and trying to complete the budget section of the application, ask your local Soroptimist club for assistance or email lydawards@soroptimist.org and we will be happy to help!

Income Section

A. Employment

- Use your take-home pay for this number (after taxes and any medical premiums are taken out). You can find your annual take-home pay by multiplying your paycheck amount by the number of checks you will get in a year.
- If your pay is inconsistent or the amount varies, do your best to estimate your take-home pay.
- If you have multiple jobs, include income from all sources of employment in this box.
- Repeat this process with any other jobs to find your total Employment Income number to input on the Budget section of your application.

B. Savings

- This figure should be the total amount that you have in your savings account(s).

C. Child Support/Alimony

- We know that these sources of income may vary month-to-month. Do your best to accurately estimate the total annual amount of income that you will receive from these sources based on your situation.

D. Government Assistance

- The specific kinds of government assistance that you may receive will vary based on your country, state, or province.
- Common types of government assistance may include cash assistance, childcare assistance, food assistance, grants for utilities, etc.
- Be sure to use the ANNUAL amount that you will receive from government assistance programs as you calculate this figure. To find the annual number, multiply the number of months that you will receive this government assistance by the monthly amount that you receive from the program. You will repeat that process for each type of government assistance you receive and add them all together.
- The total number for your income from all government assistance programs should be entered in this box on your application.

E. Loans/Scholarships

- These sources of income may be distributed once a year or once a semester.
- Please include the total annual amount of scholarships or loans that you will receive or have received for this year (for example: If you have a loan of $5,000 per semester and your college has two semesters per year, your annual amount of loans would be $10,000).
- Do not include scholarships that you are not sure you will receive.

F. Additional Income

- Use this section to list income provided by anyone else in your household (examples: partner, parents, children).

Expenses Section

A. Housing

- Housing costs can be calculated by multiplying your monthly rent or mortgage payment (including insurance) by 12 months for your annual housing costs.
- If you pay for your housing on a semester or annual basis, write your annual total for your housing costs.

B. Food

- Estimate the average amount that you spend on food each month (including groceries, eating out, and other sources), and multiply that figure by 12 months for your annual food costs.
- Please include the total annual amount you spend on food, even if you receive government food assistance.

C. Childcare

- We know that this expense may vary throughout the year depending on your schedule or age of your children. Do your best to accurately estimate the annual amount.
- Please include the total annual amount of any babysitters, daycare, or before/after school care in this box.

D. Tuition

- Please be sure to list the full rate of annual tuition and fees to attend your program. This should be the total amount before any grants or loans are applied to your tuition bill.
- If you have any difficulty finding this rate, it may be available on your program's website and/or promotional materials.

E. Utilities

- Your annual costs for internet, cable, electricity, gas, water, trash, and other home utilities should be included as utilities.
- Use your best estimates if the costs vary throughout the year or look at your utility bills for a monthly average figure and multiply that by 12 months for annual utilities costs.
- Repeat this process with all utilities expenses you pay to find your total Utilities Expenses number to input on the Budget section of your application.

F. Medical

- Examples of medical expenses could be co-pays, prescriptions, treatments, insurance (if not covered by employer or government assistance) and other out-of-pocket costs related to medical care.
- This expense may be very different month to month but do your best to estimate the annual total.

G. Transportation

- This could include car payment, car insurance, gas, registration, repairs, public transportation, or ride share costs.
- Some transportation costs may only occur once a year or irregularly—do your best to estimate the annual amount.

H. Books

- If you have taken classes before, you can use a past year's book expenses to estimate your costs for this year.
- This can include digital books or online access codes that you need to pay in order to access class materials.
- Please be sure to include the total annual expenses for your books.

I. Additional Expenses

- Common additional expenses may include a computer, clothing, personal care items, expenses for child's activities or school, debt/loan payments, etc.

HOW TO: SELECT RECIPIENTS

It's time to select your club's Live Your Dream Award recipient!

Review Applications

As you receive applications, review each one, checking to make sure it is complete and that the applicant is eligible. Anyone who has submitted an application that does not meet each of the eligibility requirements should not be included in the judging.

If you receive an incomplete application, contact the applicant about receiving the remaining information. Check the following:

- Each question is answered.
- The application is signed.
- The applicant is a woman with primary financial responsibility* for herself and her dependents.
- The applicant demonstrates financial need.
- The applicant has been accepted or is enrolled and will still be attending high school equivalency, vocational, technical, or undergraduate degree program.
- The applicant does not hold a graduate degree.

Please note:* The Live Your Dream Awards provide resources so women with dependents can increase their standard of living and achieve economic empowerment. While working towards their goals, women may receive government support, child support or live in subsidized housing/in someone else's home. These things do not negate a woman's primary financial responsibility for her dependents or disqualify a woman from being eligible for the program.

NOTE: More than one club member must be involved in the selection of the club award recipient.

Select Judges

Judges should be selected from outside the Soroptimist membership. This will provide an opportunity for judges to become community advocates for the program. Contact the women's groups, charitable organizations, and educational institutions that helped you to recruit applicants to ask their staff to serve as judges. Customize and use the sample judges letter to help recruit judges. Appoint three to five judges to evaluate all qualifying applications.

Collect Confidentiality Agreements

The privacy of Live Your Dream Awards applicants is of critical importance. Since judges will come in contact with confidential information, each judge must complete a Judges Confidentiality Agreement and return it to you. A signed Confidentiality Agreement is required to participate as a judge. You should also collect a Confidentiality Agreement from any other Soroptimist club members who are helping administer the judging process. Clubs should store signed Confidentiality Agreements in a secure location for two years.

NOTE: To help ensure the confidentiality of the applicants, after in person judging is complete, collect all paper copies of applications, and ask online judges to delete any digital or paper copies of applications they may have.

Conduct the Judging

You may choose to hold your club awards judging in person or online:

In person: Choose a location, date, and time that is convenient for potential judges. Disperse the applications among the judges and provide the judges with the judging sheet to assist them in selecting a recipient who meets the program's guidelines. Compare the judges' scores and notes to determine your club award recipient.

Online: If you are concerned about or are unable to recruit judges due to scheduling difficulties, you may wish to conduct the judging online. Simply divide the applications among the judges, email the judges copies of the applications and judging sheet, and ask that they return the completed judging sheets to you by a specified deadline. Compare the judges' scores and notes to select your club award recipient.

Check Recipient's References

Before notifying your recipient that she has been selected for an award, be sure to call her references to verify her eligibility. You may choose to contact references by phone or e-mail. If one method of communication does not work, please try the other.

Contacting a Reference by E-Mail

Refer to the reference's e-mail address at the bottom of the reference form. Send an e-mail to the reference based on this sample e-mail:

Mary Miller,
55 Main Street
Anytown, Anystate 10555

Dear Mary,

We would like to invite you to join our panel of distinguished judges as we select # club finalist(s) for the Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards. The Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards are cash awards designed to help women around the world reclaim their dreams of a better life for themselves and their families.

The cash awards give women the resources they need to improve their educational status and employment prospects. Since the Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards program began in 1972, more than $35 million has been disbursed to help tens of thousands of women offset the costs associated with their educational efforts.

The program begins at the local level where Soroptimist clubs and regions provide cash awards to local women. Twenty-nine region recipients are then forwarded to Soroptimist headquarters in Philadelphia where three women are chosen as international finalists and awarded $10,000 each.

We would be honored to have you help us select our club recipients. Judging will take place on X Day, Month X from x:xx a.m. to x:xx a.m. at local club meeting hall.

Soroptimist is a global volunteer organization that provides women and girls with access to the education and training they need to achieve economic empowerment. The organization is particularly concerned with providing women and girls access to education, as this is the most effective path to self-determination.

We hope you will be able to join us for what promises to be an inspiring and rewarding morning.

Sincerely,

Elise Castillo, Live Your Dream Awards Chair

Soroptimist International of Anytown

HOW TO: HONOR YOUR RECIPIENT

You've selected a recipient, now it's time to celebrate her!

Honoring your recipient is one of the most fun and rewarding aspects of the Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards! One of the most consistently reported outcomes from past recipients is an increase in their self-esteem and their impact as a role model for their dependents. Honoring your recipient helps her feel respected and valued as a woman in your community. It is also important for her family to see her recognized for her hard work.

Host a Recognition Event

Many clubs choose to honor their recipient at an awards banquet or dinner reception. Consider hosting a recognition event and inviting your recipient's family to join as well. Recipients consistently remark that feeling encouraged and recognized by women within their community is equally as rewarding as receiving the cash award. Furthermore, seeing their mother, wife, aunt, or sister receive an award is equally impactful on the recipient's family. We recommend seeking a volunteer photographer in your community who can take beautiful photos of the recipient and her family—lovely for them to have and for your club and SIA to have to promote the Live Your Dream Awards! There are more specific tips in the How to Host a Successful Club Event section. Photos can be submitted to program@soroptimist.org or through our online Share Your Story form.

Be sure to convey to your honoree that attending the event is not compulsory--some women are uncomfortable being recognized publicly. Attending an event or sharing their story should never be a requirement to receive the award funds. Consider sending the award funds as early as possible, and recognizing the recipient at a later time.

Publicize Your Recipient

Many clubs create a news release to further honor their recipients, or share their recipient's story on their website to advertise the award to future potential applicants. These are great ideas, but in order to use your recipient's name and story, you will need her to sign a media consent form first. Some recipients may not be comfortable with having their personal story shared and will choose to not sign the form. In these cases, clubs must honor the recipient's confidentiality.

Go Beyond a Cash Award

In addition to cash awards, many clubs offer non-monetary awards. One of SIA's strategic program objectives is to increase the ability of women to achieve economic empowerment. Therefore, consider what else applicants will need to help them achieve their goals, such as books, computers, groceries, and childcare. Club members can also volunteer their time and experience to assist recipients through mentoring, job training, and financial advice. These activities help to strengthen the quality of the impact that the award has on its recipients. Check out the Beyond A Cash Award document for more tips and suggestions!

HOW TO: HOST A SUCCESSFUL CLUB EVENT

You've selected a Live Your Dream Award recipient, and now it's time to celebrate! Follow these tips to make the event a memorable experience for everyone. You can make a big impact—and start a lasting bond—by showing that you value your recipient's input on how to make this experience accessible, welcoming and positive for her and her family.

Communication

The #1 tip for holding a successful event? Communication! All the tips below have this in common. You won't know what your club can do to make this a great experience for your recipient until you ask!

Anticipating Her Needs

Chances are, she shared quite a bit about herself in her application. Use that information to anticipate her needs. For example, if she disclosed a history of addiction, it may be thoughtful to host an alcohol-free event. If you know she's taking three classes and working full time, ask about her availability before picking a time and date. If she states her vehicle is unreliable, have a club member offer her a ride. If you know she's currently unemployed, offer to cover some costs associated with her attendance, such as childcare or transportation.

TIP: While it might feel good to hand over the award funding at your club event, delaying the funding could negatively impact your recipient. Instead of waiting to distribute funding until your event, send the funding as soon as your recipient is confirmed and present awardees with a certificate at your event.

Location and Transportation

Consult with her when choosing a venue. Ask what transportation she has access to (e.g. public transportation, her own vehicle, a ride with a family member). If she takes public transportation, choose a venue close to a bus or train stop. Consider covering the fare or gas money it takes for her to get to the event and back home. If she lives far from your club, consider choosing a location closer to her. Once you have chosen a location, let her know in advance, so she has time to plan accordingly.

Ensuring Her Comfort

A little thoughtfulness can go a long way. Let her know what kind of attire is appropriate for the event to help her feel more prepared. Consider hosting your event at a location where a suit or fancy clothing would not be required.

Invite her to bring guests who have supported her goals and aspirations, such as her family, teachers, or references. Having her supporters present will make the event a celebration of her accomplishments, and help her feel more comfortable in a room of new people.

Identify a contact person to be available the day of the event. This person can answer any questions regarding directions, parking, or other logistics, and then greet her as she arrives, introduce her to others, and ensure a warm welcome.

TIP: Personalize your event as much as possible. Include her favorite meal, dessert, or flowers. Ask how she wants her name written on her certificate, and what else you can do to make her feel comfortable and welcome at a celebration of her.

Childcare

If she's bringing her children, ensure the venue is appropriate for children and ask what you can do to make the event enjoyable for the kids. You might offer to provide age-appropriate activities such as colored pencils and paper, a puzzle, or a craft. If she plans to leave young kids at home, offer to cover the cost of childcare. Any way your club can help to reduce her stress will help her focus on the most important part of the event—celebrating her!

Speaking

When inviting your recipient to speak at the event, think about it from her point of view. Consider how writing about your own obstacles in an essay would feel different from recounting them aloud to a roomful of people. Surely, hearing about your most painful life experiences would be compelling for the audience, but might be very difficult for you. Similarly, no matter how empathetic and supportive the audience, not every woman will feel comfortable talking about her obstacles.

For these reasons, your recipient does not have to speak at the event at all. Nor does she have to share her story with the audience, even in writing.

Ask what would make this a positive experience for her. Perhaps discussing her obstacles would make her feel brave. Perhaps, it would transport her back to dark times and make her feel small. If she chooses to speak, encourage her to highlight her strengths and accomplishments. Ultimately, empowering her to be the author of her own story is the most valuable part of this experience.

When introducing her to your audience, rather than detailing her obstacles, consider sharing what about her application inspired your club to select her as a recipient and want to support her (e.g. she has strong goals, cares about her family, eloquently describes dreams for her future).

If she's not comfortable with public speaking, you might offer another solution, such as asking for written remarks from her that you will print out and distribute at each table.

Whether or not she chooses to speak at your event, your club could invite someone else to speak about the importance of education and overcoming obstacles in pursuit of dreams.

TIP: Assure her that no matter what, you're excited to celebrate her, are proud of what she has accomplished, and want to learn about her aspirations for the future. Double check with your recipient how to pronounce her name and make sure anyone speaking at the event has the phonetic pronunciation of her name available.

Engage Others

Who else within your community can be included in your celebration? An event highlighting Soroptimist's signature program and the individual women we serve can be an ideal way to thank your judges, honor past recipients of the Live Your Dream Award, or inspire other women who are interested in learning more about Soroptimist. Consider inviting local politicians and other community leaders, or a local newspaper that can highlight your club's impact in the community.

Photography

We recommend seeking a volunteer photographer in your community who can take beautiful photos of the recipient and her family—lovely for them to have and for your club and SIA to have to promote the Live Your Dream Awards! Email photos to program@soroptimist.org. Below are some tips to ensure your photos are as amazing as your recipients are!

- The higher the resolution, the better.
- Please do not send us photos in a Word or PDF document—we need the actual picture file. JPG, EPS, and PNG are all good file types, as long as they are high-resolution!
- Large group shots do not usually make good photos. Close-ups are more compelling. Generally, photos should include up to four people so that you can clearly see everyone's faces.
- A simple background focuses attention on the subject and makes clear, strong pictures. Do not be afraid to ask people to move to a better location if the background is distracting.
- Try to create backdrops for photo opportunities ahead of time—for example, hang Soroptimist banners in key locations, display the logo, etc.

TIP: Invite your recipient(s) to be in a photograph (after obtaining permission via the media consent form) with club members. Share the photos with the recipient(s) as a reminder of her special celebration, with club members as an example of their meaningful work in the community, and with a press release to local media.

Beyond a Cash Award

Consider providing additional support for your recipient. Asking for her input is a great step to ensure your gesture is not only meaningful, but also meets her needs. Perhaps she needs a certain book, piece of equipment, an item of clothing for an interview, a self-care item, groceries, or childcare so she can catch up on her tasks or have some quiet time to herself. Perhaps you can match up club members' professional experience with a need, such as mentorship or mock interviews.

Reminder and Overview

Your recipient is likely managing many responsibilities. Contact her with a reminder before the event and ask if she has any last-minute questions. Walk through an overview of what to expect (e.g. you will be near the entrance to greet her when she arrives; at 7pm she will receive the award and give her remarks; at 7:30pm dinner will be served).

EVENT CHECKLIST

You can use the checklist to ensure you have discussed important information with your recipient so she feels comfortable and prepared for the event celebrating her achievements.

SCRIPT FOR PRESENTATION OF CLUB AWARD(S)

Items that are underlined and in italics are places where you will need to add in your own information.

Hello and welcome! Thank you all for being a part of this special celebration today. We are here to honor Alice and her inspiring achievements. Alice, everyone here today supports you and believes in you and wants the very best for you and your family.

As Soroptimists, we know many hard working and courageous women. They're members of our clubs, they're leading the many regions of our organization, and serving on our board of directors, and they're the women we support with our Live Your Dream Awards.

Since 1972, Soroptimists have been empowering women through the life-changing Live Your Dream Awards. These awards assist women who support their families financially and give women the resources they need to improve their education, skills, and employment prospects.

SI/Anytown has been supporting women in the Eastbrook community since 1994. We have provided more than $15,000 in cash awards and additional support including mentoring, interview attire, and gift cards. Women who have received Live Your Dream Awards have gone on to graduate with degrees in nursing and education, get promotions and better-paying jobs that allowed them to move their families to neighborhoods with better schools, and work more consistent hours so they could be home more often with their children.

By working together, Soroptimists across North America, South America, and the Pacific Rim annually provide over $2.8 million in cash awards to more than 1,800 motivated women who are working tirelessly to make a better life for themselves and their families. Live Your Dream Awards recipients tell us they have been able to improve their standard of living, increase their self-esteem, and serve as role models for their children and other dependents.

The awards start here at the local, club-level where recipients receive $1,000. First-place recipients then go on to be considered at a region level, where they may receive an additional $3,000 or $5,000. Top recipients are then considered at an international level and have the opportunity to receive another $10,000.

But numbers are only part of the Live Your Dream Awards story. So many women tell us how much the support they receive from Soroptimists matters to them. Knowing that there is an entire global organization of women encouraging them and believing in them and their dreams helps to ignite change in their lives.

When women are educated, they have opportunity and choice, and they are much less susceptible to the many issues that can disrupt their lives. They will be less likely to live in poverty, less vulnerable to human traffickers, more likely to leave a domestic violence situation, will be able to access healthcare, and, ultimately, raise stronger healthier families.

The Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards focus on education for one reason: evidence shows that a quality education – more than anything else – holds the greatest potential to transform the lives of women and girls.

Our Live Your Dream Awards address a common need around the world and here in our own community. They quite literally make dreams come true.

Today, it is my honor to introduce Alice... [details she is comfortable sharing]

(Recipient remarks)

Thank you, Alice. You are a remarkable woman who overcame obstacles to be here today. You showed courage, strength, and perseverance. You set an example for all women, and we are honored to present you with a Soroptimist Live Your Dream Award today.

You join a group of very special women who have received Live Your Dream Awards... [acknowledge past recipients who may be present and/or what past recipients have achieved]

Despite what they have experienced, so many of these women are able to use these awards to improve their lives. And so often, they take their experiences to help improve the lives of other women and girls. That's the beautiful cycle of long-lasting change that the Live Your Dream Awards create.

So Alice, we are very excited for the next chapter of your life. And we look forward to your many accomplishments to come!

We know that success usually isn't a straight path - often there are obstacles and detours along the way – and that we can't make it there alone. Soroptimists are committed to supporting the women who receive our Live Your Dream Awards. We want to acknowledge their hard work and be a part of their path to success.

But Soroptimists don't do this work alone, either. You – our community – are also part of making dreams come true. Your financial support, your precious time volunteering and supporting our causes, helping us spread the word about our important work, and being here today... make it possible for Alice [and other past recipients present] to know her dreams are within reach, and our whole community is behind her.

So I hope Soroptimist of Anytown continues to have your support. Because we have big dreams of serving more women of Anytown – with cash awards and other assistance. Women tell us they need mentoring, school fees, networking, financial planning, and childcare. Can you help us provide any of these things? If so, there are donation envelopes and index cards on your table. Please write your contact information and what skills or interests you have that you would be willing to share with these inspiring women. A couple volunteers will walk around with baskets to collect the envelopes and index cards.

I know this community is important to you, and so is igniting change for women. That's why you're all here today. I appreciate the many ways you each have contributed to our life-changing Live Your Dream Awards, and I am excited to continue working together with all of you to turn dreams and potential into reality for women and families of Anytown.

Thank you!

BEYOND A CASH AWARD

Going Beyond a Cash Award

Introduction

Soroptimist International of the Americas recognizes the power and potential of the Live Your Dream Award and continues to seek ways in which to strengthen its impact on women's lives. SIA seeks to have 80 percent of Live Your Dream Award recipients who have completed their education report an increased standard of living within three years of receiving the award. Based on an outstanding history of creativity and commitment to this program by SIA clubs, we are confident that if clubs implement some of the below strategies, we can meet this challenge!

Planning for Additional Support

There are details below that describe strategies such as mentoring, job support, financial support, working with children, etc. to creatively increase the impact of a Soroptimist Live Your Dream Award. While those strategies are useful suggestions for your club, you may need some assistance with how to plan any additional support. This resource helps your club take the next step by explaining 1) how you can learn what additional support your recipient needs and 2) how to make a plan to provide the additional support with your club.

Learn More About Your Recipient

Review her application and reference(s)

- Review your recipient's application and references to collect important facts that will provide insight on her strengths and needs
- Take notes on the information you collect

Meet Face-to-Face

- Invite your recipient to meet you for coffee or to share a meal. Explain you want to get to know her better and you want to determine if there are other ways your Soroptimist club might be able to support her. You could also invite her to a club meeting if she is comfortable with that. Remind her you will respect her wishes regarding privacy and confidentiality.
- Explain you will be discussing some personal questions to learn more about her, and that you will be using this information to develop a plan for additional support to help her finish her education and live her dreams.
- Over coffee or your meal, ask your recipient questions that will provide insight on her strengths and needs. Examples include:

- Briefly tell me about yourself and your background.
- What are your strengths?
- What do you think you are good at?
- Tell me about your life as a child.
- What were your challenges as a child?
- As an adult, what are your challenges?
- What are your goals 1, 2, and/or 3 years from now?
- What are your current needs?
- How might our Soroptimist club help you?

Develop a Personal Profile About Your Recipient

- Work with your recipient to create a profile about her and areas of possible support. Be sure to be clear that these might not all be items that your Soroptimist Club can offer, but that identifying them is a strong first step.
- Focus on the most important information.
- Create a simple profile of your recipient including the following topics:
 - Her Background

- Her Strengths
- Her Barriers to Success
- Her Goals (Education and Employment)
- Her Areas of Need (Personal and Family)

A sample profile:

Background	Strengths	Barriers	Goals	Areas of Need
27 year old single mom, one child	Daughter gives her joy	Poor self-esteem and self-worth	Complete Bachelors of Nursing degree	Mentoring
Employed as a hostess, income $13,000 per year	Likes speaking publicly	History of physical, sexual, and emotional abuse	Find a nursing job	Counseling
Survivor of human trafficking	Loves to write	No family support	Save enough money to move to a neighborhood with a good school	Educational Assistance
	Has transportation			Financial Support

Make a Long-Term Plan

- Identify club and community resources to address your recipient's barriers and areas of need. Examples include:
 - Provide a mentor (Soroptimist member or other community member based on recipient's personal/career interests)
 - Find options for free or sliding scale counseling services
 - Provide partial financial payment for additional education expenses
 - Research other grant/scholarship opportunities for which your recipient would be eligible
 - Purchase a laptop and medical equipment/clothing for clinical nursing courses
 - Provide assistance with resume writing, practice interviewing, and networking
 - Provide financial assistance during annual events (gifts/gift cards for Christmas and birthdays, activities during school breaks, supplies for back-to-school)
- Determine the time-frame for assistance. Decide what support will be provided in 6 months, one year, two years, and/or three years.
- Create a simple action plan. Start with what you know for sure your recipient needs. Consider making a short-term plan (6 months to one year) and further developing as necessary. Identify a timeline, what type of support will be provided, and by whom. A sample action plan:

When	What	Who
March – May	Present financial award Identify a mentor Research counseling options Research scholarship/grant opportunities	Club members Club members Club members Club members
June – August	Invite to Soroptimist social Share identified counseling options Share scholarship/grant opportunities Counseling	Club mentor Club mentor Club mentor Community church Club members

	Purchase medical equipment/clothing for clinical nursing course Financial assistance for summer camp (for daughter) Back to school supplies (for daughter)	Club members Club members
September – November	Invite to club meetings Counseling	Club mentor Community church
December – February	Gifts/gift cards for Christmas Counseling Financial assistance for tuition	Club members Community church Club members
Year 2	Invite to Live Your Dream Award ceremony for next recipient Graduation gift Help recipient prepare for interviews Shop for work clothes	Club mentor Club members Club mentor Club mentor
Year 3	Invite to Live Your Dream Award ceremony for next recipient Housewarming gifts for new apartment	Club mentor Club members

Review

- Estimate costs for each item of support and the total cost of the plan.
- Consult with your club. Ask for input on what is feasible for the club to provide considering available funds and time. Decide as a club how and when support can be provided to your recipient. Be realistic—it is better to over-deliver than to disappoint your recipient!
- Meet with your recipient to ask her for approval of your plan.
- If there are any areas of need your club cannot assist with, consider if you can assist her in finding that help (example: If she needs housing assistance, perhaps someone can help her research how to obtain housing assistance).

Finalize

- Appoint a club mentor to support and communicate with your recipient.
- Review and update the plan annually or as needed.

Increasing the Impact of the Soroptimist Live Your Dream Award in the Lives of Award Recipients

A 2017 survey of the 2013-2014 Live Your Dream Awards region award recipients asked which resources or assistance, in addition to a cash award, would have been most helpful for these women as they completed their education. Their responses spanned a wide range of support options:

- 73%: An opportunity for additional funding to support further education or training
- 34% Career guidance (i.e. job searching, resume review)
- 34%: Tax or financial advice
- 33% School supplies
- 28%: An opportunity for funding to start a business
- 27% Internship/volunteer opportunities
- 26%: Mentoring by a local Soroptimist member
- 24%: An on-line, private support group of women who have received a Live Your Dream Award
- 15%: On-line mentoring

Suggestions for Additional Support

The below strategies were devised both in response to this feedback from former award recipients and also based on existing ideas from clubs already working in their communities to creatively increase the impact of the Soroptimist Live Your Dream Award.

Mentoring

Seek to create a long-lasting relationship with your award recipient wherein you provide ongoing mentorship and support to help her reach her educational and professional goals.

- Contact your award recipient throughout the year and ask how she is doing.
 - What frustrations is she experiencing?
 - Do you share similar obstacles?
 - How have you worked to overcome those obstacles in your own life?
 - Are there things you can do to support her while she seeks to overcome similar obstacles?
- Offer to take your award recipient out to lunch every couple of months to check in and develop a deeper relationship.
 - Provide recipients with online mentorship through regular emails or chats.

Job Support

Many recipients note that one of the biggest changes in their lives stemmed from knowing that a strong community of successful women believed in them. As Soroptimists, you are respected female leaders and professionals in your local community.

- Assist recipients with completing job or school applications, provide letters of recommendation or serve as a reference for a job application.
- Ask your recipient if she would like you to review her resume or offer to conduct a mock interview. Provide advice about interview etiquette and attire or how to best structure a response to questions.
- Offer to take her shopping and buy her an interview outfit.
- Provide strategies to enhance networking capabilities and tips to facilitate a successful job search.
 - Do you have networking strategies that have worked well in your professional life?
 - Are there contacts that you have that might be helpful to the recipient?

Financial Support

Encourage club members to think about ways to provide ongoing financial assistance throughout the year to supplement your club's generous cash award with other types of assistance to help meet the multi-faceted needs of female heads-of-household.

- Donate student or family support items, such as laptops, professional clothing, children's clothing, or household goods.
- Provide gift certificates for day-to-day needs, such as gas, automotive care, public transportation, haircuts, self-care items, prescriptions, or groceries.
- Clubs can also donate services that are of financial value, such as volunteering to prepare your recipient's income taxes.
- Purchase and wrap holiday gifts for recipients and their families.

Working with Children

The majority of award recipients have noted that the positive impact of the award extended beyond the recipients themselves to their children. There are many ways clubs can engage in enriching opportunities with or provide support to award recipients' children.

- Create programming, such as a "Mommy and Me" fun day for recipients and their children.
- Sponsor a summer camp opportunity.
- Help defray back-to-school costs by providing backpacks filled with school or art supplies.
- Donate musical instruments to allow an award recipient's children to participate in a school band or orchestra.
- Arrange carpools to increase access to after-school programming and activities for recipients' children.
- Assist with childcare.
- Host birthday parties for her children or help purchase birthday gifts for them.

Program Support

Ask former recipients to engage with members in supporting the Live Your Dream Awards. Ask them to lend their talents and creativity to ensure the success of this program. This will further demonstrate that your club values and respects your recipient as a member of your community and as a strong, capable woman.

- Find other applicants: Recipients can informally spread the word about opportunities available through the Soroptimist Live Your Dream Award with classmates or friends who might be eligible to apply. Encourage recipients to get creative and generate ideas about new groups or agencies at which to provide application information.
- Serve as judges: Asking a former award recipient to serve as a Soroptimist Live Your Dream Award judge further demonstrates your club's respect and admiration for award recipients and deepens your working relationship with each other.
- Marketing materials: Former award recipients can speak to what appealed to or inspired them to apply for the Soroptimist Live Your Dream Award. They may have some additional insight on how to best promote it to others.
- Newspaper articles: Interviewing recipients about how their life has been changed through the Soroptimist Live Your Dream Award is another meaningful way in which recipients could contribute to supporting the program while simultaneously being celebrated as a role model within their local community.

Connect Past Club Recipients as a Support Group

Clubs can help create networks of peer support for recipients by providing the contact information and resources necessary to form support groups of current and former award recipients from both their own club and other nearby clubs.

- Offer to secure a space, such as a room at a community center, for recipients to come together and meet or help facilitate an online support network.
- Invite former award recipients to attend club banquets or award ceremonies together to build community.

Connect with Other Community Resources, Including Opportunities for Additional Funding, Financial Advice, etc.

Clubs can serve as a bridge from the recipient to a wealth of other community resources.

- Invite recipients to LiveYourDream.org to connect them with a community of change makers who support them. LiveYourDream.org has a blog that is especially geared towards women seeking support to live their dreams.
- Connect recipients to community center programs or other free instruction that might bolster practical skills, such as computer skills.
- Keep a record of community resources so clubs can connect recipients to appropriate services, such as free counseling, free financial planning services, or community agencies that provide assistance with utilities or heating costs.
- Direct to resources or provide assistance to help a recipient launch her own small business.
- Invite recipients to sign up as a LiveYourDream.org supporter.
- Investigate opportunities for other grant awards or scholarships to complement the financial assistance provided by the Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards. Do other programs provide assistance with paying back student loans?
- Are there opportunities to reduce insurance or other costs based on degree completion?

Include in Club Activities or Membership

Because of the life-changing nature of this award and how proud many recipients are to receive it, recipients often express an interest in remaining in contact with the club.

- Invite your recipient to join your club in participating in a rewarding service project.
- If a former recipient is now in the financial position to do so, invite her to join your club.
- Gift a former recipient her first year's membership with Soroptimist as a graduation gift.

Conclusion

Through the Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards, SIA reaches tens of thousands of women across its countries and territories. But there is still more that can be done to further increase the quality of change in the lives of award recipients and improve the standard of living for these women and their families. Beyond a one-time cash award, Soroptimists can provide ongoing support and encouragement to women in ways that deepen this impact and go even further to fulfill our mission.

HOW TO: REPORTING

Share your success and enter your recipient for further awards!

In order for your club's participation in the Live Your Dream Awards to be recognized and for your club recipient to be eligible for further awards, your club must report its participation to SIA and your region.

Please note: this process will be entirely online starting in the 22-23 club year, and all clubs must report their award recipients to SIA using the online form to be counted as participating in the program. Transmittals will no longer be in use. We cannot accept emailed, mailed, or PDF reports.

The online report can be accessed in all languages at this link—you can use the toggle in the right hand corner of the form to choose your language. The questions on the report have not changed from the transmittal. You can review our video resource or PDF handout to assist you in preparing your report.

The form will allow you to save and return to it, and you can even edit your report after submission (up to the deadline). You and your region chair will each receive a copy of your submitted report. You will need a device to access the form, access to the internet, and a saved copy on your device of your club's top awardee's application and references to upload to the form. If you do not upload the complete form, your awardee will not be eligible for further awards.

Your club recipient could be eligible for additional awards totaling US $15,000! The number and amount of awards given by the region is dependent upon the number of club awards distributed through Live Your Dream Awards program in the prior club year. This is an added incentive for clubs to participate. It not only increases the chance that their club recipient will be awarded at the region-level, but more importantly, the Live Your Dream Awards will impact more women. The federation gives three USD$10,000 finalist awards each year.

Although it would be wonderful for your club's finalist to go on for additional awards, please realize that this is not a competition between clubs or regions. The entire organization should be proud of the women who are selected each year as the region and federation finalists.

Be Sure to Adhere to Deadlines!

For clubs with district judging*, club award recipients must be reported BEFORE FEBRUARY 1.

Clubs with region-only judging* must report their club recipients BEFORE FEBRUARY 15.

*Unsure of whether or not your region has districts? Contact your region chair.

Submit Your Entry

For your applicant to be included in district or region judging your online submission must be received and completed in full by the deadlines above. Only online reporting form submissions will be accepted—club transmittals, emailed, mailed, PDF, or faxed forms are not acceptable.

Your applicant's full name, contact information, and original or copy of their application must be included. If your application was submitted to your club through the application portal, simply check that box on the reporting form and SIA staff will download the application.

Notification of Additional Awards

District- and region-level Live Your Dream Awards chairs will notify clubs if their recipients have been selected to receive additional awards at that level. Clubs can expect to receive notification between March and April. Please check with your region chair for details.

Federation-level judging takes place in May of each year, and the federation finalists will be notified in May by the federation president.

HOW TO: PUBLICIZE THE AWARD

Make your community aware of the Live Your Dream Awards!

Publicizing the Live Your Dream Awards is not only a great way to help recruit applicants, but also to raise awareness of Soroptimist and your club's presence in your community.

While public awareness is integral when recruiting applicants, your club can publicize the award all year long, even after the award cycle has passed!

Distribute Materials at All Club Events

One of the simplest ways to raise awareness of the Live Your Dream Awards is by providing informational material at all of your club events. The eligibility checklist and poster both provide basic information, and can be customized with your club's contact information so potential applicants can easily contact your club for an application.

Make Community Contacts

Identify organizations within your community that work with potential Live Your Dream Awards applicants, and contact them using the Sample Applicant Recruiting email/letter. Provide these organizations with applications that they can distribute to the women with whom they work, and ask that they hang a Live Your Dream Awards poster in a visible area.

Post the Live Your Dream Awards Poster in Highly Trafficked Community Areas

Distribute the Soroptimist Live Your Dream Awards Poster to raise community awareness about the program. The poster needs to be personalized before it is posted. Place copies of the poster in all possible locations, such as on bulletin boards at food markets, community centers, and shopping centers.

Dear Ms. Fries:

You won't have to look further than Anytown to find an inspirational woman who has endured difficult circumstances, but carries on with courage and determination. She is a hero to the many local organizations, such as the Laurel House Women's Center, for which she volunteers. She is a hero to Anytown College, where she attends classes and participates in several campus outreach programs. And most important, she is a hero to her three children, who gave their mother reason to leave an abusive relationship and seek a better life.

I would like to share with you and your readers the story of Regina Harrison. Regina, 34, has inspired us with her profound story and motivation. We recently granted her a Soroptimist Live Your Dream: Education and Training Award for Women. Regina will use the $1,000 Live Your Dream Award to finish her bachelor's degree in social work.

The Live Your Dream Award is Soroptimist International of the Americas' major program. Soroptimist International of Anytown is one of nearly 1,300 clubs that make up Soroptimist International of the Americas, a global volunteer organization that provides women and girls with access to the education and training they need to achieve economic empowerment. The award provides women who serve as the primary wage earners for their families with the financial resources to offset costs associated with their efforts to attain higher education or additional skills and training. The award can be used for tuition, books, childcare, carfare, or any other education-related expense.

The Live Your Dream Award provides over $2.8 million in cash grants to head-of-household women in need each year. Since the program's inception in 1972, more than $35 million has helped tens of thousands of women achieve their dreams of a better life for themselves and their families. A study conducted by The Fels Institute of Government, a research and consulting organization based at the University of Pennsylvania, confirmed the efficacy and impact of this program. It improves the recipients' quality of life; builds their confidence; strengthens their self-determination and makes them want to, in turn, help others. Helping women in this way has the demonstrated effect of leading to stronger communities, nations, and the world.

Regina was chosen as the award recipient from among 50 area applicants. She will now advance to the Soroptimist Any Region award level, where recipients can receive up to an additional $5,000. Should she receive that award, Regina would then be eligible for an additional $10,000.

Regina Harrison joins a long list of women who have been living their dreams since 1972 with the help of the Soroptimist Live Your Dream Award. I believe your readers would be as inspired by her story as we were. I'll follow up with you shortly to determine your interest in this story. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

LIVE YOUR DREAM AWARD SPEECH INSTRUCTIONS

The Soroptimist Live Your Dream: Education and Training Awards for Women speech provides a way for clubs to create awareness about the program and the Soroptimist organization. It was designed as a template and can easily be customized. The speech can be given whenever a club member is invited to speak—be it a community college, a meeting of another civic organization, a chamber of commerce meeting, etc. Here are some tips for effective public speaking. Contact the communications department at SIA headquarters with any questions about this speech or other public awareness activities.

10 TIPS FOR GIVING A GREAT SPEECH

1) Practice makes perfect.

The more you practice, the easier it will be to give your speech. It's fine to use notes or index cards—but the less you have to rely on them, the better your speech will flow.

2) Make eye contact.

Be sure to look around the room while you deliver your speech. Take care to connect with individual people in your audience.

3) Mistakes happen.

If you make one, just keep going. Everyone will be interested in the substance of your speech. They won't remember a few mistakes.

4) Speak slowly, clearly, and loudly.

You want everyone to hear what you have to say. Even if there's a microphone, some people may have difficulty hearing.

5) Smile.

You have been invited to share about the wonderful contributions that Soroptimist makes to your community and the world. Display your feelings through positive body language, and remember to stand up straight.

6) Take a break.

If you find yourself “hemming and hawing” because you've lost your train of thought, just pause for a second or two. This will help you to get your bearings and it might also provide a dramatic effect.

7) Mix it up.

To avoid a monotonous delivery, try to vary your intonation.

8) Breathe.

Taking a deep breath before you begin speaking will have a calming effect. Also remember to take deep, regular breaths while delivering your speech.

9) Hang on.

Lightly gripping the podium or lectern will give you a feeling of stability and help to ease your jitters.

10) Enjoy yourself.

Although public speaking can be stressful, remember you are speaking to a friendly audience. Enjoy communicating a positive message about Soroptimist and the opportunity to flex your public speaking skills.

LIVE YOUR DREAM AWARDS SAMPLE SPEECH

Thank you for inviting me to be with you today (tonight). My name is _____ and I am a member of Soroptimist International of _____. Today (tonight), I want to tell you the story of a remarkable young woman named Kathy.

Kathy was born and raised in the USA's Midwest. She was a nice girl and excellent student who dreamed of one day working in the medical profession. When she was 16, she met a man more than 10 years her senior. Kathy, a self-described "ugly duckling" was extremely flattered by Joe's attention. Soon she found herself pregnant, and against her parents' wishes, dropped out of high school to marry Joe. Kathy's childhood ended that year, and her dreams for the future were put on hold indefinitely.

Almost from the beginning, there were problems. Joe, who worked as a roofer, rarely finished a job. The family would move so he could find work, but he would inevitably lose his job. Meanwhile, Kathy struggled to feed and clothe their growing family, living mostly on public assistance.

Joe began drinking heavily and acting erratically. He would tell Kathy that he was going out to get gas, and then not come home all night. He became abusive. He wanted to know where Kathy was at all times, and wouldn't let her work—despite the family's need for additional income. He was controlling and full of rage—a far cry from the sweet-talking man who had promised to love and support her.

Kathy stayed with her husband for more than a decade. She felt sorry for him and thought it was her duty to take care of him, just as her mother had taken care of her father. Kathy also believed it was best for her kids to be with their dad—regardless of how flawed he might be. Most of all, Kathy was terrified of trying to make it on her own. She was a mother to five children, without even a high school education or any realistic way to provide for her family.

One night, Kathy reached her breaking point. The kids were in the living room working on a school project, laughing and having fun. Kathy's husband came in, drunk, and asked her to drive him to a bar. When she refused, he stormed from the house and proceeded to wreck their car.

That day, Kathy, who was 28 at the time, vowed that by the time she was 30, she would be living in different circumstances. A couple of weeks later, when her kids came home from school, Kathy told Joe they were leaving. She stuffed their belongings into bags, while her husband begged her to stay. Looking at her children, Kathy realized that she'd been doing them more harm than good by staying with Joe. Kathy and all five children moved into her sister's two-bedroom house and Kathy got a job at a pizza parlor making minimum wage—certainly not enough to make her dreams a possibility.

Some time later, Kathy was at a dental appointment. She was nervous after having not been to the dentist for many years, but the hygienist was nice and calmed her fears. Sitting in that chair, Kathy remembered her childhood ambition to enter into the medical profession, and thought to herself, "Maybe it's not too late."

Kathy spent the next several months researching the field of dental hygiene. She applied for government loans and grants, but they would only be enough to cover tuition. If she attended school full time, she wouldn't be able to work to supplement the public assistance. Uniforms, car repairs and upkeep, books, plus her family's regular expenses would stretch them to the breaking point. In addition, Kathy would have a two-hour commute—each way—to and from dental school.

But Kathy's dream would not be denied. She started school and worked as many hours as she could. One day, during her first year of school, one of Kathy's professors pointed out a notice with information about the Soroptimist Live Your Dream: Education and Training Awards for Women. Kathy read the requirements and thought to herself, "That's me!" She filled out the application, beginning her personal essay with "The last 12 years of my life have been filled with many trials. ..."

Kathy's compelling story resulted in her receiving a cash award from the local Soroptimist club and later a $5,000 award from the region level of our organization. Several months later she received a call from Soroptimist's president, who asked if she was sitting down. She told Kathy that she had been chosen to receive the $10,000 finalist Soroptimist Live Your Dream Award. "I was completely stunned," recalled Kathy. "I turned to my kids and told them the amazing news. Did we ever have a party that night ... screaming and jumping up and down!"

In a letter that Kathy wrote to us, she said: "This award helped me so much, not only financially, but emotionally. It helped me to believe that I really could make it. I don't know how we would have made it without Soroptimist's help. At last, my life, and the lives of my children had hope and direction."

Kathy went on to realize her dream of a career as a dental hygienist where she said she earned more working four days a week than she did in a whole month on public assistance. She met her current husband on one of her many trips to the hardware store. She and her husband, who live with their blended family in a country home on eight acres of land, later bought a hardware store. Kathy says that her story, including how she received the Live Your Dream Award, convinced the bank to finance the loan for the store.

"I've always heard that hard times build character," said Kathy. "If that's true, I must be quite a character by now," states Kathy. "But I know that I'm a better person for it. I'm stronger and I've learned a lot, like how to believe in myself. I have grown so much. I have a deeper sense of self-worth and a lot more confidence in myself. I feel a great deal of inner peace."

Isn't Kathy's story amazing? When I think about all the little things that get most of us down, it's hard to imagine overcoming the obstacles that Kathy did. She's not alone, though. She joins tens of thousands of women who, since 1972, have reclaimed their dreams with the help of a Live Your Dream Award. We are so proud of this program, and of the women who have the courage to transform their lives. They have hope and an undeniable belief in their dreams. They are an inspiration to women everywhere who are desperate to change their lives. Kathy has shared her experiences with many of her patients who were looking for hope and direction. "I impress upon them the importance of reaching for their dreams," she says.

The Live Your Dream Awards are granted to women like Kathy who have already decided to change their lives but lack the financial resources to do so. Award amounts vary at different levels of our organization, with three top finalist awards of $10,000. Each year, over 1,800 women receive over $2.8 million in cash awards through this Soroptimist program. The award is not a scholarship and recipients may use the cash for any expense related to their efforts at gaining additional training or education. Kathy used hers to keep her car running while she made that long commute back and forth from the dental school. While the cash award is incredibly helpful, Soroptimist Live Your Dream Award recipients say that confidence and support they receive is equally meaningful.

As a global volunteer organization that provides women and girls with access to the education and training they need to achieve economic empowerment, Soroptimist believes in helping women to live their dreams by providing them with the resources they need to change their lives. We also believe that when you help a woman, you also help her family, the community, and the world. Despite the enormous progress that women have made, they still suffer disproportionately from poverty, illiteracy, violence, and discrimination. As women, we feel uniquely qualified to reach out to women the world over.

Maybe you know a woman who might be deserving of a Live Your Dream Award. Or maybe you work for an agency or a college whose constituents would be interested in this program. I urge you to contact us or to send these women our way.

I'd like to leave you with one last thought. Eleanor Roosevelt once said that the future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams. Kathy's dream was to get an education, earn a good living, and provide a good role model for her five children. Soroptimist's dream is to make sure that women like Kathy get the assistance and support they need. What's your dream?
