SIA Region Conference Welcome Letter

Dear Soroptimists,

Greetings and a warm welcome! It is truly special when members come together to celebrate our collective mission of empowering women and girls to achieve their dreams. This mission is a powerful testament to the difference we can make when we join forces. Together, we are not just changing lives; we are igniting hope and shaping brighter futures.

As we embrace change, let's propel our organization to new heights, expanding our reach and impact. By harnessing technology and fostering growth, we can better serve even more women and girls, transforming dreams into reality. Our collective strength lies in our ability to adapt and innovate, ensuring that we remain a beacon of hope and support.

This strength is already evident in our achievements. Last year, we supported nearly 26,000 women and girls through our Dream programs—a testament to your dedication and passion, as well as the extraordinary impact we create when we work together.

Our strength also lies in cultivating an environment where every Soroptimist feels valued and empowered. Together, we can foster a culture of support and encouragement that uplifts us all.

I hope you enjoy this special time together with fellow Soroptimists. I encourage you to embrace everything your conference has to offer by gaining innovative ideas, building meaningful relationships, and most importantly, finding inspiration for the incredible work that lies ahead! Thank you for being the heart of Soroptimist.

With heartfelt gratitude,

Michelle J. Burnett
